

MS Thesis Committee

- The committee shall consist minimally of three members. If there are co-chairs, the committee must consist of four members.
- The committee chair must have graduate faculty appointment and must be a part of the department of biomedical engineering faculty (primary, secondary or joint) list. If the committee chair is not part of the BME faculty, a co-chair must be appointed from the BME faculty list.
- The majority (greater than 51%) of the committee members must have graduate faculty appointment.
- The committee shall consist minimally of two members with the graduate faculty appointment from the biomedical engineering.